FROM

K. MATTHAN ESQ., B.A.,
Food Controller and Director of Civil Supplies in Mysore.

TO

C. S. Balasundaram Iyer, Esq., B.A.,
Chief Secretary to the Govt. of Mysore.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith an application received from Mr. M. L. Vardamaniah of Mysore for permission to export 500 bags of rice flour. On an application received from him on this subject a reply was given to him from the office (during my absence on tour) that the export of rice flour could not be permitted. There is however no definite order of Government prohibiting the export of rice flour unless the embargo on the export of rice is interpreted to cover rice and all its products. In my opinion it is necessary that the export of rice in the form of rice flour also should be prohibited. I may say that the Government of India have prohibited the export from India not only of rice flour, but also of flour of ragi, jola, bajra, &c.

I request that definite orders of Government on the application of Mr. Vardamaniah may be kindly obtained and communicated.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
Matthan
Food Controller & Director.

Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. G504 dated 24th January, I beg to state that there was no Government Order prohibiting the export of rice flour, and even the recent issue of Government Order does not mention anything about rice flour except rice. I have entered into a contract with Calicut merchants for the supply of rice flour in the early part of January and have got the flour. Since the Government of India passed an Order recently prohibiting the export of flour to foreign countries outside India I just wrote to find out whether our Government have passed any similar Order. Since you have communicated to me that the rice flour is also prohibited I beg to state that I will not enter into agreements in future for the supply of rice flour, but request you to grant permission to send the five hundred bags of rice flour for which I have already entered into contract.

Thanking you for an early compliance,

Yours Faithfully,

M.C. Vardhamaniar
